Date: 06-06-07

Hi folks,

here comes the first mail from the international Prep-Team of this year's European Rally.

Since there might be some questions some of you have which are also interesting for others we would like you to post this questions to our forum.

You can find a link to the forum on www.rally2007.eu at the bottom of the page.

To be able to write entries for the forum you have to register first (because there were problems with spam prevoiusly...).

Here is now the procedure to rgister:

- 1) When in the forum, klick the "Anmelden" (ger.=register) button.
This will lead you to the page with our terms and conditions (be nice in the forum..., don't be afraid, you won't buy any washing machines by doing the next step).
- 2) Scroll down the page and press "einverstanden" (ger.= I agree).
- 3) Fill in your details on the next page, its important to have a "username" which you need for login and an e-mail adress, since your first password will be send there. It may take about an hour to get your password. You also have to give yourself a "Nickname", mine for example is Schnitzel_84.
- 4) If done so, you can fill in as many details as you like in your profile and participate in all the discussions in the forum.

Additionally to this dry stuff you can also find a little video message (mp4 standard) from Katja and me on the Rally page ().

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate and send an email to Katja (Katja@wll.de) or myself (Michael.Schwab@wll.de).

Best greets from Münster

Michael
chairman of the prepteam
